

Robotics team wins Remote Operated Vehicle Competition

This is the second time Cornerstone Academy has won the title.

Special to The Sun

Cornerstone Robotics Team at MATE: From left, Hunter Swoyer, David Shepard, David Ku, John Marchand, David Sorrels, Brad King, Josh Davis and David Spencer.

By Harriet Daniels
Staff writer

Published: Monday, June 1, 2009 at 6:01 a.m.
Last Modified: Sunday, May 31, 2009 at 11:02 p.m.

The Cornerstone Academy Robotics Team won the 2009 Florida Regional Remote Operated Vehicle Competition, the second time the school has won the title.

Team members are John Marchand, Brad King, David Spencer, Josh Davis, David Shepard, David Sorrels, David Ku and Hunter Swoyer. Team advisor is Jeff Knack.

The local team placed first in the Electronics Research and Experimentation event and will go on to the 2009 National TSA Conference in Denver later this month. The team also was a finalist in the Systems Control Technology event.

The win qualified the team for the 2009 International ROV Competition at the Massachusetts Maritime Academy later this month.